

Citizens inspire Bandra face-lift

ON this waterfront, there is certainly no Marlon Brando, but the people of Bandra Bandstand certainly have their own heroes.

It is to the credit of these heroes who set about saving a coastline that had been endangered by indiscriminate dumping. The movement took off with the Mohalla committee, which was formed in 1993, when a group of people started taking an interest in civic problems. They formed the Bandra Bandstand Residents Association in 1996, which was later converted to a trust in 2000.

The blatant dumping of rubbish along their precious coastline outraged the sensibilities of the local residents who had earlier fought it out in the court and got 1,500 trucks of debris removed from the area facing the Bandstand Fort. Once this was done the group moved ahead to try and reclaim whatever was left of the coastline. The idea was to prevent it from encroachments, particularly those that had come up in the area around the Searock hotel.

The citizens had already conceived of a promenade, prepared a plan and worked with architect PK Das, who designed and implemented it. Plans were approved by the BMC, MSRDC, collector, and other concerned bodies. The funds were provided by Shabana Azmi, MP, Rajya Sabha, under the MPLAD scheme for the infrastructure. But seeing the manner in which the work was proceeding, and the effort being poured by the locals, more money was invested into the project.

The construction started in May 1999. Exactly one year later May 2000 saw the Naval Police Band inaugurate the promenade at bandstand. Then came the Art fair on November 27, 2000. This was followed by a party for the under-privileged children in December 2000. An interactive play to highlight the problems of the common man was held next on the May 6, 2001.

The variety of events held at the promenade has brought the citizens closer to each other and there is a growing sense of camaraderie among all those who come here. They voluntarily stop people from creating nuisance, throwing rubbish as they have developed a sense of ownership.

The promenade is now almost complete, and a 1.6 km stretch of reclaimed land, from Bandstand to St. Andrews Church corner, has been saved from certain disaster. Encroachment and other such nuisances would have certainly destroyed the entire already endangered coastline.

"The people have developed a good trust and funds are slowly trickling in." The association and locals are appealing to every flat-owner in Bandstand to pay Rs 20 per month. Apart from this certain sponsors have taken a keen interest and have contributed towards the development of gardens and other features.

If this example is emulated, a number of public spaces will be reclaimed by the people, for the people.
